

1 MR. SAYRE: Maybe five days would be preferable
2 unless it was suspended.

3 THE CHAIRMAN: But your requirement, as I
4 followed you, that the bill be printed in final form 5 would become almost unworkable in the last days of the 6 session. Just hardly not possible.

7 MR. SAYRE: This is one of the problems of the 8 last days.

9 MR. MILLER: If the Chair permits, if we put 10 this in the Constitution, they can't suspend the rules.
11 You can't alter the Constitution by suspending the rules, 12 and we ought to be very careful on how we limit the 13 Legislature in possible times of emergency.

14 MRS. BOTHE: I was just wondering if the 15 Committee by the language it proposed, three days after 16 introduction, intended to, it would be impossible to 17 have a special one-day session of Legislature which 18 acted on a particular bill.

19 MR. SCANLAN: I wasn't there, but if I had 20 been there, I would have said, No, there should be 21 language here which indicates this shall not be applicable
